Kreisvorstände (KV) and Instruktore of the LV on preparations for the election meetings of the factories, city districts, Ortsgruppen, and Kreise.

I. Completion of the Second General Meetings.

Clear up problems left over from First General Meeting in line with Circular Directive 26 September to Instruktore of the LV and the series in the Märkische Volksstimme entitled "Create the Necessary Clarity".

Each Instrukteur must submit a report to the Org- Instrukteur Division by 7 October on two or three meetings he has attended. The printed questionnaire is to be appended.

II. Preparations for the Election Meetings.

Every sub-unit must be represented at the city district and Ortsgruppe election meetings.

The Ortsgruppe officers must be chosen from workers in the factory, tractor stations, public farms; in rural areas from new settlers and farm hands,

We wish to emphasize again that the list of candidates in the city districts and Ortsgruppen must have prior approval of the Kreis Hq.

Preparation of the Rechenschaftsbericht (Report on accomplishments and mistakes of the old board of officers). "This report and the resolutions passed must, in view of their greater importance, have a higher ideological level than the sub-units."

Candidates must be carefully chosen with stress on Marx-Leninism and practical Party experience. Women and youth must have a fair share.

The Instrukture of the LV must talk over the list of candidates with the Kreis Secretariat and submit the list to the Org-Instrukteur Division complete with personal history and character estimate two weeks before the election. This list must show age and where and how employed.

The report must also show which of the old officers are being dropped and why and wherefore, how many of the old officers are being kept and how many of the candidates are new.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the
